Thursday, July 14, 6:30 - 8:00 PM, in Les Gove Park, ASO string players will perform a free concert including selections from John Williams, Disney, Coldplay, Ed Sheeran, Taylor Swift, and more. Relax and enjoy your favorite tunes from film and radio. Bring your family, pack a picnic, bring your lawn chairs, or throw a blanket on the ground and join us for the City of Auburn's Summer Sounds!

Sunday, August 21, 11:00 AM - 1:00 PM, in Les Gove Park, liven up your trip to the Auburn Farmers Market. Enjoy the sounds of ASO brass musicians as you stroll the fresh offerings from local vendors.

Sunday, August 28, 2:00 - 3:30 PM, at Soos Creek Botanical Gardens, join Auburn Symphony String Quartet for a lovely afternoon in the garden with fun music the whole family will enjoy! This concert sold out last year, so get your tickets early. Tickets are available at <https://www.auburnsymphony.org/202223-season> ($15 adults, $8 students, 12 and under free).

Visitors to the garden concert are encouraged to bring a picnic and enjoy the outdoor setting. Chairs will be available or you may bring your own seating. The garden opens at 1:00 PM before the concert. Soos Creek Botanical Garden & Heritage Center is located on the east hill in Auburn. This beautiful 22-acre facility features flower gardens, woodland areas, a vegetable demonstration garden, an aviary, and much more. You will find a variety of gardens inspired by international, regional, and historical gardens, as well as education and conservation information about horticulture, the environment, and history.
