Auburn Symphony's 2019 Summer Series continues with Bach, Beethoven, and Brews - July 11 at 7 p.m. at Geaux Brewing.

The concert offers a unique twist on a string quartet. Guests can sip on their favorite beverages and nibble on Cajun-inspired cuisine all while listening to hearty works by German composers full of rich sounds and full-bodied melodies.

Creole and American-style pub fare along with delicious brews are available for purchase at the all-ages restaurant. More information and menu details can be found at geauxbrewing.com.

At a Chamber Concert like this audience members can enjoy a more intimate experience and get up close to the musicians in a smaller setting. The relaxed atmosphere of Geaux Brewing with top-notch music is a combo not to be missed!

This concert program includes Bach's Trio Sonata in G Major, Haydn's String Quartet Op. 77 No. 1, and Beethoven's String Quarter Op. 59 No. 1.

Featured Auburn Symphony musicians are violinists John Kim and Lynn Bartlett Johnson, violist Eileen Swanson, and cellist Brian Wharton.

Tickets and information can be found at auburnsymphony.org or by calling the Auburn Symphony office at 253-887-7777.

Auburn Symphony's Summer Series concludes with a free performance at the Auburn International Farmers Market at Les Gove Park on July 21 at 10:30 a.m. Nothing says "summer" like fresh fruits and veggies, sunshine, and good music. Join Auburn Symphony Orchestra musicians for a family-friendly performance full of popular tunes and then take a stroll through the market.
