Celebrate the holidays with Auburn Symphony Orchestra! Bring the entire family for an evening of holiday cheer. This fun show is perfect for everyone, young and young-at-heart. The orchestra will perform many holiday favorites including Sleigh Ride, Hanukkah songs, music from favorite Christmas movies and songs from Disney's FROZEN.

Students from Auburn Riverside High School Orchestra will be welcomed on stage to perform side-by-side with the professional musicians for the first two songs of the concert. Ending the concert will be the beloved annual heart-warming sing-along where everyone in the hall can join in the delight of the season.

If you've never attended a symphony concert, this show is the perfect introduction. The music is familiar and festive. The atmosphere is comfortable for the whole family. Come early to take pictures and get treats in the lobby.

Tickets and information can be found at auburnsymphony.org or by calling the Auburn Symphony office at 253-887-7777.

Auburn Symphony's next concert in the Symphony Series is Happy Birthday, Beethoven!, in celebration of the 250th anniversary of the composer's birth. Performance is Sunday, February 16th at 2:30 pm in the Auburn Performing Arts Center.
